

NORTHEAST MEDINA CO.

BRUNSWICK

Mrs. Will Vaughn was a flu victim the past week.

The sophomore class of the high school will give a valentine social in the town hall this Friday evening. Each girl bring a valentine and they will be sold to highest bidder. The proceeds are to go towards a new high school. The state inspector was here last week and condemned our school house and said there must be a new one or our first grade qualifications would be taken away from us.

Al Sprague and wife were out from Cleveland last Thursday evening to see her mother, Mrs. E. E. Rice, who is on the gain now.

Theresa Hosmer of Valley City school spent the week-end at Charles Gibbs'.

Fred Usher and family of Cleveland spent Saturday night and Sunday at Harry Waite's, as Saturday was Mrs. Waite's birthday. In the evening they also had C. W. Damon and wife, C. H. Damon and wife and Ernest Waite, wife and daughter, and Ed Fritz and family for a social visit.

Mrs. Dennis Johnson is attending court in Cleveland this week as a witness in a case against the Green Line Bus Co. She was on a bus about a year and a half ago when a couple of little boys were run over by the bus. At the time the doctor said they were all right, and now the parents are suing, as they say the boys will be crippled for life.

Dwight Smith is back at his old stand of blacksmithing at the substation. He followed that trade while in camp.

Remember the Grange for next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Parks went to Berea Monday to stay with her sister, Mrs. Fannie Smith.

A number of our people are going to Cleveland this week to hear Harry Lauder.

Ed. Jones came to town Sunday and surprised some of the people. For the past year he had lived at F. H. Gibbs', Charles Gibbs' and Theodore Chapman's, and while here was blind. Since leaving he has been to a New York hospital and had cataracts removed and now he can see all right.

Mrs. Lucien Chidsey was in Cleveland Tuesday.

Walter Coleman was home from Akron over Sunday.

Mrs. George Brenner was in Cleveland this week attending commencement exercises.

Mrs. Faith Harris Converse of Bennett's Corners, spoke in the M. E. church Sunday evening, on Japan, where she has been a missionary. As a number of soldier boys were present they had an informal reception in the basement and the girls served coffee, wafers and cake. Clarence Rohde spoke for Baldwin-Wallace College, Handy Miner for Hiram, and Howard Stephenson on some of his experiences while abroad in Red Cross work.

Our new high school teacher, Miss Marie Rickenbacher, is a cousin of the ace of aces, Eddie Rickenbacher, and both are from Columbus. By his pictures she says he has grown stouter since leaving home eighteen months ago.

Sam Rock, wife and baby Howard of Berea spent last week Thursday at George Coleman's.

Maud Judson was able to be out to church Sunday, after being confined to the house with a sprained ankle.

Alvin and Earle Gibbs, Howard Chapman and Handy Miner were home for Sunday, from Hiram.

Mrs. Bessie Palm and Doris Jester of Ravenna spent the week-end at Henry Barton's.

Bert Freese, wife and son were in Medina last week Thursday to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Lance, who had been an invalid for over eight months.

Perry Freese and son, Clyde and Chris Reuter were in Cleveland on Tuesday in a case against the Eagle Dairy Co., who, it is claimed, defrauded several of our farmers out of several hundred dollars each in selling milk to them.

G. W. Barry of east town line has moved onto the Killian farm farther north, and Mr. Kuhen has gone on to the Barry farm.

Following is the cast of characters in the play, "The Dust of the Earth," to be given in the town hall, Feb. 21 and 22, for the benefit of the Red Cross:

David Moore, of Maple Farm Cottage, Raymond Brant; Susan, his wife, Margie Ridiker; Elizabeth, their daughter, Letha Miner; Jerry, their son, Nell Ferriman; Rev. Dr. Templeton, a young divine, Wayne Cadnum; Miss Arabella, of the village newspaper, Irene Kellar; John Ryder, the young master of the Maples, Morris Case; Wandering Tom, a mystery, Silas Ashdown; Old Morse, his companion, Harvey Betseover; Nell, the "Dust of the Earth", Marian Perkins.

The district quarterly rally meeting of the Lorain-Medina district of the Church of Christ, will be held at Brunswick on Tuesday and Wednesday, Feb. 18 and 19. Following is the program for both days' sessions:

Tuesday afternoon—2 p. m., Devotional Service, Pastor C. H. Searles, Hinckley Ridge; 2:30, sermon, "That Ye Should Earnestly Contend for the Faith Which Was Once Delivered Unto the Saints," Jude 3, Pastor J. L. Griffith, Wadsworth; 3:15, Symposium, "Present Day Problems in Our Doctrine and Practice," (a) Is Our Bible School a School of the Bible? C. C. Gibbs, Brunswick; (b) Do We Properly Value the Lord's Supper? Elder A. Wilcox, Cleveland; (c) Have We Drifted in Our Teaching? Mrs. G. J. Damon, Medina; (d) What Shall the Preacher Preach? Pastor C. C. Smith, Sullivan; general discussion led by J. B. Ault, Medina.

Tuesday evening: 7 p. m., Devotional service, Pastor F. H. Randall, North Eaton; 7:45, Chart sermon, "Studying the Bible by Dispensations," Rev. C. C. Maple, Elyria.

Wednesday morning: 9 a. m., Devotional service, Pastor C. C. Maple; 9:30, Round Table on Departmental Work, Pastor J. L. Griffith; 10, Christian Woman's Journal of Missions Rally program in charge of Mrs. V. S. Goodale, Medina; 10:45, Devotional service, Pastor Leo M. Gregory, Polk; 11, address, "The Making of the Bible" (illustrated by chart) Rev. I. N. DePuy, Lakewood; 12, dinner.

Wednesday afternoon: 1:15, Devotional service, Chas. Draper, Bennetts Corners; 1:45, address, "The Translating of the Bible," (illustrated by chart) Rev. I. N. DePuy, Lakewood; 2:45, address, "Why I am What I Am, or the Reason Why I Stand Identified with the Disciples of Christ?" Pastor W. L. Burner, Elyria; 3:30, open meeting for testimony and exhortation; 4, adjournment.

Wednesday evening: 7, Devotional service, Pastor O. L. Newcomer, Lorain; 8, address, "Remove Not the Ancient Land-Marks Which Thy Fathers Have Set," Judge A. R. Webber, Elyria.

Rev. O. C. Bedford of Litchfield will have charge of the song services. All who expect to attend should notify C. G. Gibbs, Brunswick.

The ladies of the Brunswick church will serve dinner in the church on Wednesday and supper at the evening hour.

HINCKLEY

Private Wilbur Charlton has returned home from Camp Sheridan, Ala., honorably discharged. Clarence Mumford has returned

Clean-Up Sale Of All Winter Goods

Come in and save 50 per cent on all of our heavy winter goods.

Overcoats almost given away. Now is your chance. It will pay you to stock up for future use.

ABRAM'S CLOTHING and SHOE STORE
Medina, Ohio

OPEN EVERY EVENING

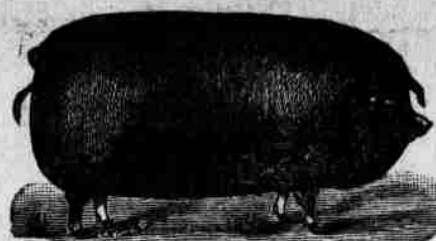

LEARN TRACTORS

Learn to repair and drive tractors now
Catalog Free

Cleveland Automobile School

1813 E. 24th St.

Pork is High
Hog Tone
Is Guaranteed

To beat anything on the market as a hog conditioner. Feed part of your hogs Hog Tone and watch them grow away from the others.

For Sale by
G. O. HAURY, Erhart, Ohio

When in Cleveland Leave Your Car

AT

THE EUCLID SQUARE GARAGE CO.

EAST 13th STREET-NORTH OF EUCLID
CLEVELAND

GAS AND WATER PIPE

ALL SIZES

Hand Feed Cutters; One 5 H. P. Gray Engine; One 4 H. P. Cushman Engine; also 1 1-2 H. P. Engines for Pumping.

ONE ENCLOSED STORM BUGGY

Coal on Hand Feed LUMBER

Gibbs & Lincoln Brunswick, Ohio

from Camp Taylor, honorably discharged. He is now sick at his home.

Frank Jackson was home on a furlough from Camp Taylor. We understand he has enlisted for four years and will go to a camp in California.

Mr. Whitmore of Wadsworth, the "Watkin's Man," was working in Hinckley several days this week.

Mrs. W. C. Ehman is still very sick with pleurisy and pneumonia. A nurse from Cleveland is caring for her.

Emma Kellogg spent Sunday at her father's in Medina.

Mrs. Anna Shook was in Cleveland Monday.

L. L. Stadler and Johnson are drilling for oil and gas on their farms here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Peiro of Cleveland visited at Milton Charlton's Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Case of Brunswick are living with Fred McKee until their own house is completed.

Mrs. Ellen Riley is working at Thos. Roberts'.

J. M. Riley was in Cleveland on business Monday.

GOODMAN'S CORNERS

Mr. G. Wolgemuth has gone to Michigan on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clement and Arzie Clement and wife went to Mr. Nichols' at Mt. Pleasant, Tuesday, to see their brother Alfred, who has just returned from Camp Sheridan, Ala.

Morris Perkins and family from Brunswick spent Sunday at his brother William's.

Glenn Ritchie and family spent Sunday at S. W. Ruppert's in Hinckley.

Mrs. Bessie Palm and Miss Doris Jaster returned to their home in Ravenna Tuesday after visiting a few days at Henry Barton's.

Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Morton have returned from their visit to their daughter, Lettie's in Kentucky.

BENNETTS CORNERS

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Levandoski motored to Berea Monday morning, to see Harry McLean who is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Loomis were Sunday guests at their daughter, Mrs. Mabel Dake's, at Remson Corners.

About 30 young people went to the home of Henry Harris last Friday evening to surprise Miss Esther Barnes, as she is going back to her home in Michigan this week. Mr. and Mrs. Guy Converse gave some very amusing and interesting facts about Japanese life. They expect to go back to Japan in the near future.

Miss Iva Painting from Royalton came home with Fern Loomis to attend the surprise party.

Mrs. Eliza Wilkinson from Cleveland visited last week at her daughter, Mrs. Cora Wyman's.

GRANGERBURG

About forty friends and neighbors of Mrs. Mark Hazen, whose husband recently returned from service overseas, gave her a miscellaneous shower Thursday of last week.

Chauncey Hopkins, one of Granger's older and respected citizens, died in the Akron hospital last Sunday morning. The body was taken to New York state for burial.

The Y. M. C. A. observed "Father and Son Night" by giving a banquet in the Community house on the M. E. parsonage grounds. About fifty people were present and the occasion was enjoyed by all. County Secretary R. A. Stow was present and gave a brief address, after which Rev. F. E. Eastman of West Richfield, secured as the speaker of the evening, gave a strong address in which he emphasized the relation of father and son and the new demands for recognition of the brotherhood of all the races.

Mrs. S. I. Thompson, who has been very ill for several weeks, is slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ganyard drove to Cleveland Tuesday and brought Karl Beechler, who has been in a Cleveland hospital suffering with pneumonia, back to his home.

H. H. Coddington spent Tuesday with relatives in North Royalton.

We are glad to welcome the Swigert family to our community. Mr. Swigert is employed by C. I. Miller and has moved into the old Miller home.

John Hanson spent Sunday with his parents.

The Y. M. C. A. and the High School Athletic association are preparing an entertainment to be given at the closing session of the Farmers' institute, which meets Friday and Saturday of this week.

OBERLIN BUSINESS COLLEGE
PLACED UPON APPROVED LIST
BY U. S. GOVERNMENT FOR TRAINING DISABLED SOLDIERS.

Word was received last week from Washington that the Oberlin Business College has been placed upon the approved list of colleges for training disabled soldiers at government expense. Schools approved for this purpose must meet the requirements of the Federal Board for Vocational Education in regard to courses, equipment, class of instructors. The Business College at Oberlin is now regarded as one of the best schools of its kind in the United States. A number of discharged soldiers have entered this school since the first of the year.

We always try to please every patron of our Job Printing Department—give us your next order and make us prove it and be pleased too.

"Elcar" Autos

We want sub-dealers in every city throughout Northeastern Ohio, and are offering a very attractive contract.

The ELCAR this season is truly a sensation and a rapid fire seller; somebody will make a clean-up in your territory. Why not you?

Ten models to choose from, backed by a company in business since 1873.

Reliability, Honesty and Square Dealing Guaranteed.

KEPLER AUTO EXCHANGE

35 South High St.
AKRON, OHIO.

HARNESS

An Orville Special Harness for $63.00

An Ideal Farm Harness

Leatherman's Hardware
Lodi, Ohio

OHIO'S GREAT POST-WAR EXPOSITION

CLEVELAND AUTO SHOW

$2,000,000 Display of Cars set in gorgeous "Palace of Victory"

Aeronautic and Automotive Equipment

Concerts Every Afternoon and Evening

FEBRUARY 15 to 22

WIGMORE COLISEUM

Euclid Ave. and East 13th St.